

A Message From Paragon Resources

We are sure that you are receiving dozens of emails from companies that want you to know their response to Coronavirus. We wanted to take a few minutes of your time to let you know what we are doing and to let you know that we are here for you!

We know many are being impacted by this unprecedented time in history. We remain forward thinking and are living by the belief that this too shall pass, and we must be in it together. First and foremost, we are taking the precautionary measures that health professionals advise and making sure we Keep Calm and Carry On! For us, that means fulfilling our purpose of helping others uncover and capitalize on their talents!

We've been working remotely for the last two decades, so we are well-equipped to answer your calls and fulfill your assessment and training needs, Monday-Friday 8-5 Eastern.

We may not be traveling to a training program for a while, so we will continue to offer our telephone consulting and ramp up our live, virtual Zoom training to foster personal and professional development.

Communicate, Communicate, Communicate with your teams, departments, customers, and throughout your organizations. We are doing a morning and afternoon remote "huddle" to keep in constant communication and recommend the same to you.

We aren't caring for any kids at home, so we empathize with all of those parents who are trying to keep their families busy in this uncertain time! Want to help your kids build self-awareness and uncover their talents? We offer our online Indigo DISC and Motivators Student Reports. This is a great tool to help facilitate a conversation about their future studies and career decisions.

You know how much we love small businesses, so we are shopping local to support them at this time.

While we are forgoing the gym right now, we are putting our favorite music on as loud as possible and dancing for exercise. Laughter ensues, and we all know that is the BEST medicine! We prescribe the same to you!

Please let us know how we can help. We are here for you!

"Work like you don't need the money. Dance like no one is watching. And love like you've never been hurt."

~ MARK TWAIN

If you have any comments or suggestions on how we can better assist you and your practice, please know that we welcome your input. If you are looking for assistance on a specific project, please feel free to contact us so that we can craft the best solution for you using our own expertise or that of our strategic partners.

Warmest regards,
Krista & Sarah
